May the Holy Spirit teach us to pray with the Church and in the Church during this difficult time, His Beatitude Sviatoslav in the video project

A Christian is not a separate or closed person who lives his own, deeply private life. To be a Christian means to be a member of a community.

This was emphasized by the Head of the UGCC in the 8th part of the Zhyve TV project His Beatitude Sviatoslav: #clrealy_about_complicated

The Head of the Church explained the importance of participating in common prayer, for example, in the Liturgy.

"Unfortunately, in today's world it is generally accepted that religion is a private matter that should not be talked about in society or mentioned in a conversation with people. Instead, the truth of who a Christian is shows that we are all saved as those who belong to God's people.

Therefore, to be a Christian means to be a member of the community," the bishop said.

His Beatitude explained that even when praying alone, a Christian should feel part of the church community. And when we gather for common prayer, we feel that we are united in one community only through the action of the Holy Spirit, who is the teacher of true prayer.

The Head of the UGCC also explained why the Liturgy is often called a divine service. "During the Liturgy, the Son of God Himself descends from heaven to those gathered in his Name to serve them. And because we have many personal needs, wounds or some unresolved issues, the Divine Liturgy is the best time to present to God everything that worries us," said His Beatitude Sviatoslav, adding that to be together in prayer during the Divine Liturgy is a natural way to be a Church.

METROPOLITAN LAWRENCE HUCULAK NAMED TO VATICAN COUNCIL

According to the July 8th news bulletin from the Vatican News Service, Pope Francis appointed the Archbishop of Winnipeg, His Grace Metropolitan Lawrence Huculak, OSBM to the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue. Among 22 new appointees, Metropolitan Lawrence joins a unique global team of only 35 cardinals, Archbishops and bishops that form this council that was first established by Pope St. Paul VI at the close of the Second Vatican Council in 1964.

It is not a great surprise that Metropolitan Lawrence was invited to the group as he has distinguished himself over the years as an active and valuable member of various ecumenical and interfaith dialogues and efforts - among the most notable are his participation in Orthodox-Catholic and Muslim-Catholic commissions and events. He served as the President of the Western Diocesan and Eparchial Coordinators of Ecumenism. © http://archeparchy.ca/news\_details.php?news\_id=942

In response to the plea of His Beatitude Sviatoslav Shevchuk, head of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church, with the blessing of Archbishop Borys Gudziak, the Ukrainian Catholic Archeparchy of Philadelphia has launched a fundraising campaign to help people affected by the recent floods in western Ukraine. The first tranche of $25,000 was wired on July 2 to Ivano-Frankivsk Archeparchy, Kolomyia and Chernivtsi eparchies. As of July 9, $51,539 was raised through a setup fundraiser on archieparchial Facebook page and mailed-in individual donations. Pastors were asked to take collections on June 27-28 and July 4-5 in their parishes.

More than 400 people made contributions to the Facebook fundraiser. About 90% of the funds come from Ukrainians living abroad wishing to help their brothers and sisters who have been affected by the flood," explains the Auxiliary Bishop of Philadelphia Andriy Raby.

Since it is difficult to respond to the particular needs of the victims remotely, the Archeparchy decided to transfer funds to the local eparchies. "Financial support allows us to be both quick and flexible. Affected regions are primarily agricultural. People do not have high income and depend mainly on their farms. They lost crops, their houses are partially destroyed. It is our Christian duty to help them in any way we can - spiritually and materially. They are in our prayers daily. And since we do not know their specific needs, we trust and rely on the competence of local church relief agency "Caritas" to provide help to those who need it most," emphasized Bishop Andriy. © <http://news.ugcc.ua/>
